Lottie

Say hello to Lottie (or Lottie Dottie, if you're feeling fancy)!

This bouncy little Shepherd mix was born on March 6, 2024, and she's got just the right mix of sweet and sassy to steal your heart.

Lottie is a total love-bug—she's always ready for snuggles and somehow just knows when you need a little extra cuddling. But don't let the cuddles fool you—this girl has energy for days! She loves to wrestle and romp with her siblings, and she's just itching for more space to zoom around and play.

She's already picking up on the basics—she knows her name, comes when called, and is working hard on her commands (because she's wicked smart). She does well in her crate, is getting the hang of car rides, and is quite the talker—she's got opinions and isn't shy about sharing them!

Lottie might need a little more training as she grows, but with her brains and big heart, she's ready to be someone's adventure buddy, snuggle partner, and best friend all in one.

Think Lottie Dottie could be your new ride-or-die? She's ready when you are!
