

COURTESY LISTING FOR ALEX

Meet Alex: Your Energetic Adventure Companion!

Hello, wonderful people! I'm Alex, a lively and spirited female ready to find my forever home. Here's a little about me:

Background: I found myself looking for a new home because my previous owner had a hip surgery and couldn't keep up with my vibrant energy levels. Now, I'm on a quest to find a happy place to call my own.

Forever Home Ready: I'm eager to settle into a loving forever home where I can share my joy and enthusiasm. If you're looking for a loyal companion, I'm all ears (and paws)!

Health Check: I've got my shots up to date, and I'm patiently waiting to be fixed. Your future furry friend comes with a clean bill of health.

Adventure Awaits: I've got that puppy energy that's perfect for hikes and exciting adventures! If you're an outdoor enthusiast looking for a four-legged sidekick, I'm your girl.

Cuddle Alert: While I'm ready for action, I'm also a pro at cuddling. After a day of exploration, I'll happily join you for some quality downtime.

If you're ready for a lively companion who brings a spark of joy to every day, consider making me a part of your family!
