

COURTESY LISTING

Milo

Hi everyone, my name is Milo! My dad was involved in an awful car accident on highway 49 a couple weeks ago & due to the drastic measures of medical care, my family would like to explore my options for a new forever home.

A little about me, I am a 1.5 year old, neutered male, pittie mix.

I am about 65 + pounds and would sometimes pull my owners around in excitement on walks, so in the beginning of the year my dad sent me to a very intense training program with How2Dog. The lovely training helped me with that and to learn some amazing basic commands. But training by was never a consistent experience at home- so I still pull. I haven't been properly socialized with many new humans or animals- so I tend to get a little nervous in new situations and would probably do best as an only pup house until I'm settled and trained to be the best doggie ever.

If you think I'm cute, want to keep training me, and have room in your heart & home- I'd love for you to give me a chance.

Again, my name is Milo & If you like to meet me or have questions, please contact my foster fam Andy Cave or Jestene Evans.

Also, if you'd like to check out some of my videos, my trainer posted some on their facebook page How2Dog
