

COURTESY LISTING

This is Nikki ...male..possibly Maine Coon
Below is Lexi, female. They are both 11 years old, grew up together, all those years with their human mama who has recently passed away.

They are healthy and loving and are desperate to find a forever home. I can not take them because my husband is allergic to cats...it is breaking my heart. Their home will be going on the market soon and time is running out.

Please call me at 530-432-5695
