Meet Ireland, our beautiful red Golden Retriever, almost 7 years old and full of heart.

She's the perfect mix of gentle and protective — calm and quiet indoors, yet watchful and present. Large enough to offer protection but low-maintenance in exercise needs, Ireland is happy relaxing inside or spending time outdoors.

A true people dog, she's wonderfully sweet, especially gentle with children, and loves being near her family. Whether snuggling or quietly keeping watch, she brings steady companionship and warmth. Though she's been a beloved part of our family, living with other female dogs has caused tension. Ireland would thrive as the only dog, or in a calm home without assertive pets, where she can enjoy peace and be her loyal, loving self.
