

COURTESY LISTING

Meet Netty (but her friends call her Woowoo!)

Born on March 6, 2024, this spunky little Shepherd mix is bursting with love, energy, and just the right amount of sass.

Netty is a champion snuggler who's happiest when curled up next to you—but if you really want to win her heart, offer up some butt scratches. Seriously. She'll skip a game of catch if it means getting those sweet, sweet scritches.

She's full of zoomies and joy, always ready to play with her siblings and explore the world around her. Right now, she doesn't have quite enough space to burn off all that puppy energy, so she's dreaming of a home where she can really let loose.

Woowoo is also wicked smart—she knows her name, comes when called, and is picking up on her basic commands like a pro. She's crate-trained, learning to enjoy car rides, and isn't shy about talking back (don't worry, she still listens!). With a little continued training, she'll be the perfect mix of fun and well-behaved.

If you're looking for a goofy, affectionate, and super smart bestie who loves to chat and cuddle, Netty might just be your perfect match.
