Searching for the perfect home....

Pinto is a dachshund/chihuahua/wire hair terrier mix.

He would do best as an only dog or maybe a larger calm dog (he gets along fine with my two pit bulls he just met). Doesn't seem to mind cats unless they chase him. He needs a really secure yard (or to be on a leash). No small children, but older kids who respect little dog space are great. He loves his person and will follow you around all day. Loves cuddling on laps. Has had crate training in the past.
