

Champ is a sweet boy with a gentle nature. When he was adopted from the shelter 3 years ago, he was heartbroken and lonely and in desperate need of love. Then he was adopted and changed immediately.

During the car ride home, he insisted that he sit in the passenger seat. He acted like he had never left that shelter and everything was new. Quite frankly he was the happiest dog on the planet at that moment.

He loves to run, he'll chase anything you throw for him. He'll hear you coming from a mile away and be at the door waiting to ask you where you've been. He's a great dog-- friendly and with tons of energy.

Characteristics: Loving, Friendly, Gentle, Sensitive, Playful

Currently lives with Zelda (also available). Would be nice to place together, but listing them separately for better chance at rehoming.
